

Appendicitis.

How to Avoid It and Escape a Surgical Operation, Told by One Who Knows.

Simple Method That Is Always Effective.

It has only been a few years since it was discovered that a surgical operation could cure appendicitis. In fact, it was not until a short time since the disease was discovered and named.

Whenever there is an inflamed condition of the appendix, caused by impacted feces in the small cavity opening into the intestine, you then have appendicitis.

The older doctors used to call this inflammation of the bowels, and were unable to know the cause.

Physicians all the knowledge we have of the disease, no medical man can tell you why we should have an appendix, or we find it, where it is, or what are its functions, if it has any.

The disease for which the operation is usually caused by indigestion, and in many cases follows a large and indigestible meal.

Physicians have until recently recommended an operation, but now, as it is known that it is caused by indigestion, dyspepsia, a cure without an operation is possible.

Where the patient is treated with Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, the inflammatory conditions rapidly disappear, the stomach and intestines are placed back in their normal condition, any organ of the body operates as it should, and the inflammation is reduced and the operation is avoided.

Physicians who are looking after the best interests of their patients, will always keep a supply of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets handy in their office, where in cases of sudden attacks of indigestion they can relieve the patient at once.

There is no record of a case of appendicitis where the stomach and bowels were in a healthy condition and properly treated the food from meal to meal.

No better advice can be given to any one who has attacks of indigestion, or who has been threatened with appendicitis, than to tell him to go to the drug store, pay 50 cents, and take home a package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Whenever heartburn, gas in stomach, constipation, sour eructations, acidity or flatulence are present, act at once. Take a dose of the Tablets and get relief as soon as possible.

A pretty home wedding last evening was that of Miss Adah Bean and Richard R. Esselman. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Morris at 8:30, when about sixty-five relatives and close friends were present. A supper followed. The bride wore a dainty gown of white net over white tulle, and carried bride's roses. Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Emeline Bean, in white net over blue tulle. Heber Esselman, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The house was profusely decorated in pink and white carnations and roses. In the center of the table was a large basket of the flowers with pink satin ribbons going from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. Mr. and Mrs. Esselman left later for California. Her traveling dress was brown broadcloth, with hat and gloves to match. Mr. and Mrs. Esselman will be at home to their friends after January 1 at 775 South Fourth East.

The Brotherhood of Railway Clerks gave its first annual ball at Kennedy's hall Wednesday evening. It was one of the largest social successes of the season. About 600 were present. The clerks have been organized about a year, and they now have a membership of 150.

Miss Jannette Benzon and Horace Clark were married Thursday morning in the Temple, and left in the afternoon for a short trip. After January 1 Mr. and Mrs. Clark will be at home to their friends in Farmington, Utah.

Mrs. Richard Oglesby will leave the first of the week for Terr Haute, Ind., to spend the holidays with her parents. Mr. Oglesby will join her in January.

Dr. Edie of Grand Rapids, Mich., will be here to spend the holidays with his daughter, Mrs. E. S. Perry.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Strevel left on Wednesday for a month's visit in Chicago, Ill.

When to Go Home.

From the Bluffton, Ind., Banner:

"When tired out, go home. When you want consolation, go home. When you want fun, go home. When you want to show others that you have reformed, go home, and let your family get acquainted with the fact. When you want to show yourself at your best, go home and do the act there. When you feel like being extra liberal, go home and practice on your wife and children first. When you want to shine with extra brilliancy, go home and line up the whole household." To which we would add, when you have a bad cold, go home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and a quick cure is certain. For sale by all druggists.
